Who can join

The RIBA Associate Member category is for individuals who have the following qualifications and experience:

- has passed RIBA recognised Parts 1 and 2 examinations in architecture (or an examination approved by Council as providing exemption) – or
- has been awarded an architectural qualification consisting of a minimum of five years of academic study which is listed in the European Union Directive (2005/36/EC), and is currently working towards the 5 years post-qualification professional experience required for RIBA Chartered Membership.

Students studying Part 1 or 2 should apply for RIBA Student membership.

If you are currently a Student member, and have now passed Part 2, you can upgrade to Associate Membership by completing this form.

How to apply

Please complete the application form in block capitals and ink and return it to us with the appropriate documentation.

Next steps by the RIBA

New Associate Members will receive a welcome pack within three weeks of application. The pack includes your membership card, information about RIBA resources and full details of your membership benefits. Once you receive your pack, you can immediately begin to enjoy the benefits of membership.

Your name will be put forward for election at the next meeting of the RIBA Council. This will occur within 4-12 weeks depending on when your application is received.

If you have any questions regarding your application, please contact the Membership Services team on +44 (0)20 7307 3800 or email membership.services@inst.riba.org

The Direct Debit Guarantee

This guarantee is offered by all Banks and Building Societies that take part in the Direct Debit Scheme. The efficiency and security of the Scheme is monitored and protected by your own Bank or Building Society.

If the amount to be paid or the payment dates change, RIBA will notify you 14 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed.

If an error is made by RIBA or your Bank or Building Society, you are guaranteed a full and immediate refund from your branch of the amount paid.

You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by writing to your Bank or Building Society. Please also send a copy of your letter to us.
