

RIBA Honorary Fellowships 2011 nominations

The RIBA is calling for nominations for Honorary Fellows for 2011.

Within the terms and spirit of the Charter and in accordance with the bylaws, to recommend to Council men and women of merit who have made an outstanding contribution to the quality of architecture, the achievement of the profession and the purposes of the Institute. Any person who is not an architect may be elected as an Honorary Fellow.

Nominations must be made by an RIBA member and be supported by the relevant material, which may include: a biography, statement from nominator, a list of any relevant monographs or articles, images etc. You may wish to contact a member of the Honours Committee to request they support your nomination. If so, please email the Awards Manager (address below) for contact details. It is not essential to have the agreement of the nominee, and nominations are not made public.

All nominations must be received in the Awards Office, 66 Portland Place, London W1B 1AD by Friday 14 May 2010.

Honours Committee 2011:

Ruth Reed
David Adjaye
