
RIBA International Fellowships 2011 nominations

The RIBA is calling for nominations for International Fellows for 2011.

Within the terms and spirit of the Charter and in accordance with the bylaws, to recommend to Council architects who are not citizens of the United Kingdom, not already members of the RIBA and who exhibit distinction and breadth in their contribution to architecture.

Nominations must be made by an RIBA member and be supported by the relevant material, which may include: a biography, statement from nominator, a list of any relevant monographs or articles, images etc. You may wish to contact a member of the Honours Committee to request they support your nomination. If so, please email the Awards Administrator (address below) for contact details. It is not essential to have the agreement of the nominee, and nominations are not made public. A full list of existing International Fellows is attached.

All nominations must be received in the Awards Office, 66 Portland Place, London W1B 1AD by Friday 14 May 2010.

Honours Committee 2011:

Ruth Reed
David Adjaye
Edward Cullinan
Max Fordham
Valerio Olgiati
Laura Lee

Nominations will be announced at RIBA Council in October 2010.
Fellowships will be presented at a formal dinner in London in February 2011.
